D. B. PLUNKETT, M.P. IS GIVEN UNANIMOUS NOMINATION IN CITY

Victoria Federal Member Wins Decisive Victory Over Hugh Allan in Only Ballot Taken at Conservative Nomination in City Last Evening—Decision Is Cheered

D. B. PLUNKETT, Victoria member in the House of Commons, Ottawa, was given the Conservative nomination in the city last evening by a decisive first ballot, immediately made unanimous on motion of Hugh Allan, who contested the honor. The sitting member polled 197 ballots out of 280, while eighty-three ballots went to Mr. Allan.

Cheers for Mr. Plunkett as the Conservative standard-bearer here in the Federal election, and applause for the sportsmanlike conduct of the runner-up in the nomination, brought an enthusiastic rally to a close at 10:30 p.m. Dr. Frank Patterson, president of the British Columbia Conservative Association, and both candidates for the nomination spoke briefly.

PREDICTS VICTORY
 Dr. Patterson, after complimenting the Victoria association on a well-conducted and sportsmanlike convention, predicted that Victoria, traditionally a Conservative seat in Federal affairs, would remain decisively so in the coming test.

Returning thanks for the nomination after it was made unanimous, Mr. Plunkett said he found it difficult to express the gratitude he felt on repetition of the honor for the third time in succession. His allegiance to the Conservative Party and to the leadership of Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett had already been made clear, and was now reaffirmed. There might be a hard road ahead of the party in the test to come, but there was victory to be attained, he continued. It had been said that he took his duties too seriously, but these were not smiling days for any man in public office. He appreciated the responsibilities involved, and would do his best to prove worthy of the confidence again.

BRITISH HOUSE IS ADJOURNED

Classroom Essay Subject of Lively Debate in Closing Session

LONDON, Aug. 2 (AP)—Parliament adjourned an evening session today to meet again on October 29, unless some grave development, perhaps arising from the Italo-Ethiopian dispute, warrants an earlier convocation.

One of the last acts was the final stamp on the Indian Bill, conferring self-government with safeguards on a Federated India. With only a few peers present, it was announced in the House of Lords that the royal assent had been given.

LIVELY DISCUSSION

The closing session of the House of Commons was enlivened by two hours' discussion of the case of Maud Mason, twelve, a schoolgirl whose classroom essay declaring England the "finest country in the world" had been condemned as "old-fashioned imperialism" by a school inspector. The case created an uproar when first called to the attention of the Commons, three days ago, and there were cries of shame and disapproval. Certain men here insisted on full discussion.

GIRL IN GALLERY

Today the girl herself was in the gallery, and she said, after the discussion: "Oh, it was dreadful. It made me feel funny inside when I saw a gentleman with a silk hat handling my exercise book."

Morgan Jones, a Laborite member and former school teacher, capped the discussion by calling the whole thing a "stunt" and "un-English." He read, in dramatic and ironic tones, a newspaper headline: "Maud Mason Gets Film Star's Reception."

RUSSIAN TIMBER PRICES REDUCED

Report Gives Rise to Erroneous Belief That Agreement Had Been Repudiated

LONDON, Aug. 3 (AP)—A report that Timber Distributors, Limited, have brought into effect a reduced price list on unsold stocks of Russian timber was said today to have given rise to erroneous belief that Russia had repudiated its agreement covering the 1935 timber season. In quarters close to the situation it was said the new price list was drawn up solely by Timber Distributors, an association of British principal wood buyers, and that Russian exporters had nothing to do with it.

BRITAIN MAY ASSUME LEAD

Attempt at World Monetary Stabilization Expected After Next Elections

(Copyright, 1935, by the Havan News Agency)

LONDON, Aug. 2 (CP-Havas)—Great Britain, it was believed here today, will attack the problem of world monetary stabilization as soon as the next general elections are out of the way, providing, of course, the National Government is returned to power.

British financial circles seem to have adopted generally the view that parity must be based on comparative prices, and not on an inflexible gold standard or any other such rigid system.

FLEXIBLE PARITIES

Flexible parities that can vary within certain ranges, regulated through a fund comparable with the exchange equalization fund, which has been found satisfactory, are now favored. As financial circles here have remarked, the Government already has many taxes and quotas designed specifically to counter-balance exchange fluctuations and their consequences. It would give a stable basis for negotiation of commercial treaties and would favor negotiations of international loans.

It has been said the instability of the gold bloc would leave all concerned as badly off as ever.

DOMESTIC PRICES

Efforts of Premier Laval of France at forcing down prices, if carried out as well by the Cabinet of Premier Hendrik Colijn in the Netherlands, may solve the problem.

PLAN TO BUILD ANOTHER TOWN

Residents of Slave Lake Driven From Homes by Raging Flood

EDMONTON, Aug. 2 (AP)—Residents of Slave Lake, harassed by the overflow from Lesser Lake, were planning tonight to build a new town away from the inundated flats, reports reaching here tonight indicated.

The overflow, whipped by a northern gale, rushed through the settlement in water five feet high early in the week, causing heavy property damage. Merchants worked feverishly to salvage goods from their places of business. The town took on a strange appearance, with tents and frail shacks, hurriedly erected, providing shelter for residents.

Efforts were being made to estimate damage of the floods, which crumbled sturdy buildings and forced citizens to travel by canoe. Motor boats drew up to curbside filling stations.

Although the rains have ceased, the floods are slow in receding. It is considered that rebuilding will be slow, and, due to heavy losses, many will not rebuild. Many residents talked tonight of moving away from the area.

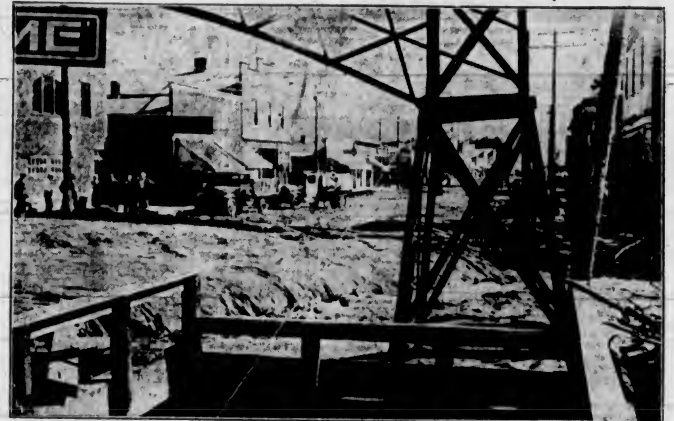

Seattle Police Seeking New Kind of Kidnapper

SEATTLE, Aug. 2 (AP)—A new kind of kidnapper is being hunted by Seattle police.

Scores of valuable dogs have been stolen from yards, apartments and cars within the past few weeks. Almost without exception, the lost dogs have been returned immediately upon the offering of a reward.

This has led police and owners of pedigreed dogs to believe a dog reward racket is being worked here. One woman reported that her dog, said to be of great value, jumped out of an automobile the other night and was rescued by a newboy.

Train Wreck Causes Spectacular Blaze at Oil Refinery

VENEL, N.J., Aug. 2 (AP)—A Reading railroad freight train started a spectacular fire tonight when it became derailed and broke a pipeline carrying crude oil from the West to the Bayway refineries.

Three members of the train crew jumped to safety and escaped with minor bruises as the seventy-car train went through an open switch at Lockwood's Crossing. The locomotive and cars lay in a blazing pool of oil while a steady flow of fresh oil gushed from the broken pipe. Firemen from Woodbridge and Venel battled to hold the blaze in check and summoned help from the fire departments of neighboring cities.

Distribution of Wealth Objective Of Liberal Party

Mackenzie King Presents Fourteen-Point Programme Enunciated in 1933 as Platform of Organization in Coming Elections—Says Canadian People Are Sick of Promises

OTTAWA, Aug. 2 (AP)—Liberalism holds personality more sacred than property, and the Liberal Party will devote itself to finding means of distributing the wealth of the nation with increasing regard to human needs, Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader, said tonight in the second of his pre-election radio speeches.

Speaking from Ottawa over a national hookup arranged by the Canadian Radio Commission, Mr. King declared the party would go into the election on the fourteen-point platform enunciated in 1933. This platform had been endorsed by Liberal victories in Federal by-elections and provincial general elections. Neither the Liberal party nor its leader saw any reason for changing them as time had shown they met the needs of Canada today.

"SICK OF PROMISES"
 The Canadian people were sick of promises, said Mr. King. They wanted to know where parties stood on the problems of the day, what their policies were, and what their underlying principles. He said the party had been previously put to him and placed him in an embarrassing position.

"Premier Pattullo and his Government have had time to do more and better than they have done," Mr. Clark said. He severely criticized the Provincial Government for its method of handling the unemployed, and intimated it had "passed the buck" of responsibility.

MINE ROBBED OF HIGH-GRADE ORE

Rich Vein Covered Up by Owners Discovered and Looted Some Months Ago

SEWARD, Alaska, Aug. 2 (AP)—"Hijackers" who stripped the Slater gold mine, in Moose Pass, of at least two tons of gold ore, valued at $5,000 per ton, were being sought today by Territorial authorities.

The vein of high-grade ore, which had been covered over last fall by the owners, had been looted by thieves some time during the Winter or Spring. It has just been discovered.

This marks the first such theft in this district.

Italy Has Plan for Massed Flight of Bombers to Africa

GENEVA, Aug. 2 (AP)—A three-point agreement among Italy, France and Britain as to methods for settling the Italo-Ethiopian dispute was announced tonight by Anthony Eden, of Great Britain.

The three points are:
 1. Arbitration will be resumed by setting in motion machinery provided in the 1928 Italo-Ethiopian treaty of friendship. A fifth, neutral, member will be added to the existing Italo-Ethiopian conciliation commission.

2. Britain, France and Italy will hold a conference somewhere in France as soon as possible to discuss possibilities of a broad political settlement of the Italo-Ethiopian dispute.

3. A meeting of the League of Nations Council to consider the whole subject will be held on September 4.

ITALY NOT VOTING
 At the Council meeting next month, Eden explained, Italy will refrain from voting and from taking part in the discussion. A public session of the Council.

ARE RESOLVED TO BEAR ARMS

Women of Ethiopia Demand Right to Fight for Their Country

ADDIS ABABA, Aug. 2 (AP)—Emergency precautionary measures to keep open the Addis Ababa-Djibouti railway line, this capital's only outlet to the world, were taken today after two Italian subjects, natives of the Dodecanese Islands, were killed in an unexplained wreck.

Still another major problem faced the King of Kings in militant women demanding the right to bear arms against Italy in the event of war. A leading spokesman for the would-be-feminine warriors, Wolozero Assefatch, daughter of Commander Dedjarmatch Haptemikael, urged her sisters to follow her into battle, and announced:

WILL LEAD HER OWN
 "I will organize and lead my own army of women."

"The women must fight today just as our mothers and grandmothers helped fight and conquer the same foes at Addis forty years ago—and by fight I mean with rifles, spears and knives, not just nursing and cooking."

Determined to keep intact Ethiopia's channel to the sea, the Emperor detailed picked troops to guard the bridges spanning the enormous chasms along the way to Djibouti.

FRENCH HUNTING GERMAN SPY RING

NICE, France, Aug. 2 (AP)—A huge German spy ring was sought tonight after the arrest of four alleged members accused of spying into the secrets of France's Mediterranean fortifications.

The band, police said, is suspected of spying on forts and the big naval base at Toulon, using Monte Carlo as the base of their operations.

Authorities would divulge the identity of only one of the four arrested. He was Eugene Hahn, said to be of German nationality, who described himself as a retired capitalist.

The authorities said Hahn conducted the espionage ring's "spott office," other members bringing information to him, which he co-ordinated and forwarded.

Soviet Plane Heads For California by Way of North Pole

Three Airmen Leave Moscow in Driving Rain—Expect to Reach San Francisco on Monday—Make Graceful Takeoff

MOSCOW, Aug. 3 (AP)—The Soviet polar plane, USSR 25, piloted by Sigmund Levanevsky, took off today at 6:03 a.m. from the Shrekovskiy airport in a driving rain. The plane, attempting a trans-polar 6,000-mile record non-stop flight to San Francisco via Canada's Northwest territories and Vancouver, soared away to a graceful take-off despite a load of fuel and emergency equipment totaling six tons.

Accompanying Levanevsky were an average of ninety-six miles per hour to maintain such a schedule. The route the flyers will follow carries them over an Arctic zone of almost continuous daylight and then over a larger strip of Canada's Northwest territories.

They will cross the sparsely inhabited Kola peninsula, heading out over Barents Sea approximately 150 miles east of Murmansk. The plane would be forced to maintain

Requests New Trial For Aemilius Jarvis On Old Fraud Charge

Ontario Attorney-General Makes Recommendation to Minister of Justice—Doubts Accuracy of Jury's Findings on Incomplete Evidence

TORONTO, Aug. 2 (AP).—A new trial for Aemilius Jarvis, Sr., convicted of conspiracy in 1924 in connection with an Ontario Government bond deal, was recommended today to the Minister of Justice at Ottawa in a communication from Attorney-General Arthur W. Roebuck.

"It is my considered opinion that in the interest of justice a new trial of Aemilius Jarvis, Sr., should be ordered," Mr. Roebuck wrote in a long report prepared, as the result of his inquiry into the whole Jarvis case. "The granting of such relief is placed by the Criminal Code within your discretion. I have felt it my duty to bring these facts to your attention."

INCOMPLETE EVIDENCE
The Ontario Attorney-General emphasized "It must not be concluded I have come to any conclusions as to the guilt or innocence of Mr. Jarvis. . . . But I do say there are grave doubts as to the accuracy of the jury's findings on the incomplete evidence submitted."

"As a result of my investigations, I am of the opinion my predecessor in office was in error in advising the Minister of Justice that no relief should be granted Mr. Jarvis."

BESTS WITH MINISTER
Decision as to whether Mr. Jarvis gets a new trial for which he has fought for many years now rests with Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Federal Minister of Justice. It has been said Mr. Guthrie would grant another hearing for the investment dealer if it was recommended by the Attorney-General of Ontario.

Mr. Roebuck refused to "pass upon the weight which could be attached to the evidence of Andrew Papell" (associate of Mr. Jarvis, who died Tuesday in California), but the Attorney-General suggested the jury which tried Jarvis should have had the advantage of hearing Papell's evidence.

"And a decision rendered without first hearing what Papell had to say is open to serious doubt," Mr. Roebuck added.

CONVICTED OF FRAUD
Aemilius Jarvis, along with the late Peter Smith, former Ontario Provincial Treasurer, was convicted

Enthusiastic Throng Pledges Support of New Deal Campaign

PETITION TO SPREAD
The audience was told how Up-Island communities already had endorsed the petition 100 per cent, and how other Up-Island communities were even now circulating petitions calling upon the ten Island members in the Legislature to stand united for a new deal.

When Frank Partridge asked the audience if they would support the movement whole-heartedly, there was not one person to be seen who did not signify his or her support.

At the close of last night's meeting Mr. Partridge met the many volunteers and detailed the work to them in connection with circulating the petition. He explained that Cumberland had turned in a petition bearing the names of all those on the electoral voters' list. At Victoria's objective, he said, was at least 65 per cent of the voters' list and more if possible.

Efforts had been made, it was stated, at the meeting, to belaud the issues and place a political complexion upon the movement, but speaker after speaker, of various political views, refuted the charge and declared themselves openly as to their politics, and asserted the campaign was a non-political one.

IS NON-PARTISAN
"Permit me, at the outset, to state that, despite whisperings to the contrary, this campaign for a New Deal for Vancouver Island is not a partisan attempt to play party politics. It is an earnest and honest endeavor to secure for the Island a measure of equity and justice long denied by successive governments," declared B. A. McKelvie, managing editor of The Colonist.

In opening his address, which was followed by others, also stressing the need for a new deal.

Continuing his address, Mr. McKelvie said:
"Some years ago a Premier of British Columbia used to say when his opponents were pressing him and he was in a tight corner: 'Just muddy the waters a bit—just muddy the waters.' By obscuring the issue he was often successful in dealing the purpose of those who attacked him."

MUDDY WATERS
"Now, some person is trying to muddy the waters and obscure the vision of a New Deal for Vancouver Island. At first those who were anxious to prevent the development of a new spirit of unity and co-ordination resorted to whisperings. It was said that this whole movement was but an effort to embarrass the present administration, and that the programme was one of sectionalism."

"Yesterday there appeared an anonymous statement purporting to throw a new aspect on the discussions for a new deal, and presenting figures in an effort to convince the residents of Vancouver Island that they are in a happy and prosperous state."

"Now, permit me, friends, to briefly touch upon these arguments that are put forward to refute the suggestion that we have cause to ask that a reasonable concern be shown for our future."

"In the whole of the discussion of the need for a new deal, it has been repeatedly emphasized that the Island is suffering today from a system of contemptuous indifference to its legitimate requirements ever since Colonial days, and that an unfair proportion of the revenues raised on Vancouver Island have been diverted to the Mainland."

AN OPPORTUNITY
"The present Government is no more to blame for the existence of that method of inequality and injustice than the last, or the one before that, or any that has held office since Colonial days. But the present administration does have the opportunity that those former ones missed—of inaugurating a new and better era for Vancouver Island, based upon fair-dealing and equity."

"Now, as to the second whispered criticism: That we are raising a cry of 'sectionalism.' Is it any greater degree of sectionalism for the former Crown Colony of Vancouver Island when it has become a part of British Columbia to demand better treatment, than for the province, as part of Canada, to ask for better terms from Ottawa? Is one a crime and the other a virtue? "As a matter of fact our complaint is about sectionalism. We say that the Mainland section of this province has been favored at the expense of the Island. If it be 'sectionalism' to ask for just treatment; to demand that a fair proportion of the revenues we produce be used to develop the Island, and to insist upon having a definite and purposeful plan for our future prosperity—if such be sectionalism, then I am for it."

"And now, for a few moments, let us examine the argument advanced in The Times of last night, obviously intended to be an attack upon the movement for a New Deal for Vancouver Island. It is not a Government statement. It is an anonymous article, and I have to thank whoever wrote it for its apparent honesty. It is a very good article, and it greatly strengthens the case for Vancouver Island, although those who have read it will recognize that such was not its intention."

OFFICES LEAVE CITY
"In the first place it states that one-third of the civil service payroll is on Vancouver Island. I had estimated a larger expenditure here, but of course office after office has been established in Vancouver of late years, and it is not always possible to keep check on the multitudinous appointments to jobs there."

"It is indeed very interesting to learn that apart from all the ministerial and deputies' offices with all the staffs pertaining to them, that such an enormous proportion of the civil service is on the Mainland."

"That there is any considerable part of the civil service on Vancouver Island is not the fault of the Mainland, which threatened to secede when the Parliament Buildings were erected here, and actually petitioned the Governor-General to that effect."

QUOTES ARTICLE
"I quote from the article which appeared last night:
"Figures taken from the 1933-34 accounts of the Government show that total expenditures on Vancouver Island during that year, exclusive of debt, were $2,811,760.24, against a total for the Province of $12,674,471.67. The Island proportion was 22.18 per cent."

"That is an interesting statement. Let us look at it. What we have been stating is that approximately one-third of the revenues are raised on the Island and one-tenth is returned."

"The Times declares that $1,233,000 is paid out in salaries on Vancouver Island to 'civil servants, teachers, police, and other services, and $1,578,608 in other expenditures."

"Let me ask you, why should debt charges be ignored? They totaled nearly $7,000,000, without setting up sinking funds."

"Was it because Vancouver Island is called upon to help pay the cost of the $67,000,000 loan in the P.G.E.?—and what use is that political line to Vancouver Island?"

"Was it because you and I are contributing to carry the load of approximately $20,000,000 to which the Province was committed for wild land settlement and reclamation schemes on the Mainland?"

"Was it because we are taxed on this Island to pay for the millions of dollars wiped off the loans to

Council Committee Is Instructed to See About Airport

FOLLOWING a short discussion on airports yesterday, the City Council instructed the business and trade development committee to investigate the possibility of leasing property for an airport at Oak Bay, Esquimalt and Saanich would contribute to the cost.

Members of the committee are Aldermen Alex Peden, James Adam, R. A. C. Dewar and Archie Wills.

Alderman Walter Luney declared that if the city had gone about it in the right way, there would by now have been a busy airport at Lansdowne Road. He claimed the field had been closed through undue influence brought to bear upon the council.

LOAD OF DEBTS
"It is because of this load of debts contracted for the development of the Mainland that we cannot get what we required on Vancouver Island today. You who want roads, who desire the opening up of the scenic treasures of Vancouver Island can not have them by reason of that tremendous load of debt—and then we are told that we are being treated nicely—provided that we do not mention the millions that we must pay as tribute to Mainland squanderings by successive Governments."

"But let us go back to the pay-lia and other expenditures on Vancouver Island. There is no doubt but that I would like to mention one or two, which are indicative of the manner in which the lot were compiled by the anonymous economist, who is opposed to the granting of a fair deal to Vancouver Island."

"Here is one item: Vancouver Island receives the lion's share, of course, on expenditures for legislation, since the session is held here. Out of $104,868 spent for this purpose, 70 per cent, or $74,273 was paid out here."

MAKES ANALYSIS
"That is a plain statement on the face of it, but it is true only in part. For instance, thirty-eight members for Mainland constituencies were each paid $1,600. That makes $60,800. The cheques were issued to them here. So were the cheques for $3,219.75 for their expenses in traveling to Victoria; but it is hardly fair to say it is an Island expenditure. Then there was an amount of $1,440 for Mr. Speaker, who lives in Prince George when not at the sitting of the House. There was an item of $95.65 for the Vancouver Bursar—and I never heard of Mr. Cromie being a resident of Vancouver Island; likewise $41.65 went to The Vancouver Province, and $383.25 was a grant given to the Empire Parliamentary Association. It was paid out here by Government cheque, but I really don't think that it is an Island-expenditure. These items total $66,917.70, without taking into consideration the employees of the Government who were brought from the Mainland to work here during the session. So you will see that only about $30,000 can be credited to expenditures for the Island."

"The Times says that the Government 'pays out 37 per cent of the provincial payroll on Vancouver Island. Thirty-four per cent of it is in Victoria."

"You have just been shown how it pays out for legislation—by issuing cheques to Mainland members—and I don't doubt that cheques to the value of 37 per cent are actually sent out in Victoria. It is significant, however, that, according to The Times, only 3 per cent of the civil service payroll goes to the balance of Vancouver Island."

"It would have been of value to this discussion if the revenues of the Island had been disclosed. In the Legislature it was stated that it was impossible to segregate them. Why? Because much of the revenue raised here is credited to Vancouver district, such as timber royalties and fees."

MOTOR REVENUES
"We raised on Vancouver Island, last year, from the owners and operators of 22,596 motor vehicles, the sum of $1,215,000. You see that is about the total given for the whole salaries of the civil service on the Island. The exactions made upon

Task Near End of Commission Working On Insurance Plans

Will Be Submitted Shortly to Dominion Government for Approval—Survey to Be Made of All Unemployed in Canada

OTTAWA, Aug. 2 (AP).—General plans for the organization of Canada's first employment insurance system have been about completed by the newly-appointed Employment and Social Insurance Commission, Col. Gordon Harrington, chairman, stated today. With his fellow commissioners, Tom Moore and A. R. Beaudet, Mr. Harrington outlined the scope of the work to a group of newspapermen.

In a short time the plans will be submitted to the Government for approval, he said, but he could make no prediction of the date at which the insurance plan would begin to operate.

THOUSANDS WANT JOBS
Since the commission began meeting it had received literally thousands of applications for positions, said Colonel Harrington. All these were being turned over to the civil service commission.

One of the first tasks of the commission will be to make a survey of all unemployed in Canada. The commission was also authorized to look into health insurance.

The scheme contemplates the creation of a fund by compulsory contributions from which benefits would be paid to those who became unemployed after making the requisite number of contributions. The worker contributed two-fifths of the fund, the employer two-fifths, and the Government one-fifth. The Government bore all operating expenses. Under this arrangement the benefits accruing to the insured worker in relation to his contribution would be about five times as great as under a private insurance system.

TO COVER ALL WORKERS
The scheme will cover all workers in industries having year-round operations or reasonable permanency of employment. It will apply to employees in stores and shops and to office workers in banks and financial institutions. Farming, domestic service, and such seasonal occupations as fishing and logging camp work are among the excepted occupations.

In connection with the scheme the commission will have to operate labor exchanges throughout the country. Co-operation of the Provincial Governments which now operate employment service bureaus will be sought in order to avoid duplication of effort.

FINAL ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR CONCLAVE HERE OF DRUGGISTS
Final arrangements for the twenty-third annual convention of the Canadian Pharmaceutical Association, which will be held in Victoria for four days, commencing Monday, have been completed, according to R. V. Jenkins, general vice-chairman of the local committee.

Mr. Jenkins has been a diligent worker in connection with the conference. To confer with Vancouver druggists, he visited the Mainland city Wednesday, and arranged for the prizes to be presented to the winners of the sports events that will be conducted during the convention period.

OPINIONS

MAINLAND ASKS VALLEY ROADS
D. W. Strachan, M.P.P., Heads Party of Twenty in Search of Extensions

Led by D. W. Strachan, Liberal member for Dewdney, Fraser Valley reeves and board of trade officials descended on the Provincial Government yesterday, with requests for more and better roads in the Mission-Abbotsford area. Fifteen were in the party, headed by Reeve George Cruickshanks, of Matsqui.

The delegation was introduced by Mr. Strachan to Hon. F. M. MacPherson, in his office, where members of the group spoke to their several requests. Chief in action sought from the Government was a request for completion of a good road from Mission to Abbotsford, and on to Huntington, at the border.

NO UNDERTAKING
The Minister of Works heard the representations in detail, and explained phases of the Province's special road programme already allocated in that vicinity. Reduction in the cost of the programme from $3,000,000 to $1,500,000 would necessarily mean curtailment at several points, Mr. MacPherson explained.

Included in the delegation, besides those already mentioned, were Reeve Harry Wren, Mission; Andrew Graham, Mission; Dick Wilson, president of the Mission Board of Trade; Daniel Cooper, of Fraser Valley Milk Producers' Association; Rand Appleby, a director of the same association; W. Thompson; A. W. Welsh, chairman of the highway committee of the Mission Board of Trade; with J. L. Daly, W. Coombs and H. Henderson, of the same group; C. Pratt and H. L. Atkins, of the Abbotsford Board of Trade, and others.

Stomach Trouble Is Cause of Many Ailments

Harris' Wondro Is a Real Stomach Medicine

NOW FEELS IN THE PINK OF CONDITION

Dear Sir—Harris' Wondro is certainly all that it is claimed to be. I, for one, would never be without it. I was troubled with my stomach a great deal in the past and rarely feel well. However, since taking Harris' Wondro I always feel in the pink of condition and give your medicine all the credit for bringing about this change. I recommend Harris' Wondro to any of my friends who I think need it, and those who have given it a trial agree with me that it is an outstanding remedy—Yours truly,

LEN HOLLAND,
Teacher of Piano, Anacostia, Y.M.C.A. Branch
623 Richards Street, Vancouver, B.C. Phone Highland 1948.

GOOD RESULTS FOR ULCERATED STOMACH

Dear Sir—About three years ago I began to be troubled with stomach pains. I was told I had an ulcerated stomach, and was advised to take a course of medicine. I refused, and was put on a diet of rice and milk for six weeks. The trouble still persisted. I remained on a careful and smooth diet for a long time. Last January two friends in Victoria told me about Harris' Wondro, and I started to take it. I felt better after using two bottles, and took four more with good results. I did not take any during the summer, but started again three weeks ago, and hope to get a continuation of the beneficial results I received last spring—Yours truly,

A. WORMALD,
Twin Beaches, Galiano Island, B.C.

REV. THOMAS BINGHAM, PROMINENT BAPTIST MINISTER, OF ST. GEORGE, ONTARIO, WRITES:

I suffered greatly with my stomach. I had dizzy spells and sickness which left me in a very rundown condition. My constipation noticed the change in me after I had taken Harris' Wondro for some months. I gained from 15 to 18 pounds, which, I think, is extraordinary for a man of my age. Since then I have kept well, and hope that God will bless you.

Harris' Wondro is prepared so that it will act directly on the stomach, and accomplish its restorative work through that vital organ of the body. Unlike many medicines, it does not act merely as a laxative and then be carried away before it has time to do its work. Harris' Wondro cleans the system, and restores the digestive tract to its normal state. It is a powerful and effective remedy for all stomach troubles, and is the only medicine that can be taken with food and without any harmful effects. It is the only medicine that can be taken with food and without any harmful effects. It is the only medicine that can be taken with food and without any harmful effects.

Harris' Wondro can also be obtained in capsule form—reduced price $3.50 per box. One separate bottle of Harris' Wondro is a medicine for constipation, it is included with every bottle of box of Harris' Wondro. Sent by mail postpaid from Calgary to country points.

SIDNEY TO HAVE SPECIAL SERVICE

St. Andrew's Will Celebrate Twenty-Fifth Anniversary—Reception for Bishop-Coadjutor

SIDNEY, Aug. 2.—A special service will be held at St. Andrew's Church on Sunday at 7 o'clock in the evening to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the church.

Right Rev. H. E. Sexton, Bishop-Coadjutor of Columbia, will be the preacher for the occasion.

After the service a reception will be held at the home of Mrs. J. W. C. Williams.

CLAIRVOYANCE TO FOLLOW ADDRESS

At the First Spiritual Church, Sons of England Hall, Broad Street, the pastor of which is Rev. F. P. Prampton, there will be a public circle on Sunday afternoon in Room No. 5 in the front of the hall, conducted by Miss Pearson, at 3 o'clock. At 7:30 o'clock the pastor will give an "inspirational address," followed by messages by flowers and clairvoyance. The soloist will be Mrs. J. W. C. Williams.

OPPOSE NEW GAS STATION

Fairfield Road Residents Tie Up Building at Cook Street Intersection

Application of Heisterman, Forman & Co., to have the northwest corner of Fairfield Road and Cook Street re-zoned so that the property might be sold to the Shell Oil Company of British Columbia, Ltd., for erection of a gasoline service station, was tabled for investigation by the City Council yesterday afternoon.

James Forman pointed out the property in question was zoned as an apartment house area and that the zoning committee of the council told him there were already too many service stations.

"But what of it?" asked Mr. Forman, "there are too many doctors, lawyers and retail shops in Victoria."

"And too many contractors," echoed Alderman Walter Loney.

Mr. Forman told aldermen that the proposed service station would cost between $4,000 and $6,000 and would occupy a frontage of 120 feet on Cook Street. He gave examples of how many stations had brightened up and improved dreary corners without having any effect upon property values in the vicinity.

WANTS NO MORE

Nicholas Van der Vliet representing an apartment house on Fairfield Road, said the proposed station would not affect his property, but he feared once a precedent were established, other stations would be erected in the vicinity.

T. W. MacPherson, Home Oil Distributors, Ltd., manager, stated that another station opposite the present one, which was served by his company, was absolutely unnecessary. There were plenty of others in the neighborhood.

Letters were read from several residents strenuously opposing invasion of the residential district by another service station. J. G. Gates and Dr. J. H. Moore voiced sentiments expressed in the letters. They believed property values would be considerably lowered.

Alderman James Adam thought the decision of the zoning committee to not re-zone the area should be abided by. He agreed that it was a residential district.

"Could you stop another real estate office from opening up next to mine?" asked Alderman Percy R. Brown. His question went unanswered.

Alderman Walter Loney agreed with Mr. MacPherson that another station would be unfair to the man at present operating one nearby. He suggested the value of the property of residents who approved and those

Funeral of Pioneer Today

THE LATE MRS. EDITH PEATT

Funeral service for the late Mrs. Peatt, a resident of Victoria, who died last Saturday, will be held today, Tuesday, at 2 o'clock, at St. John's Church, Colwood.

She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Peatt, 1520 Pearl Street; a daughter, Miss Phyllis Peatt, in England; and a brother-in-law and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Peatt, Colwood.

The late Mrs. Peatt was extremely active in community and church work in the Colwood district.

Alderman R. A. G. Dewar reminded the others that there were two lots affected in the pending transaction. He wanted to know if one would be used while the other remained unsaleable.

Dr. J. D. Hunter and John A. Worthington suggested the council determine whether the oil company would take both lots and what kind of a station would be erected. The matter was referred to the lands and zoning committee.

"Did it take a gasoline service station being built opposite the City Hall," Mr. Forman's parting shot as he left the meeting.

EVACUATION OF ANYOX WATCHED

Big Mines Remain Property Of Granby Consolidated, As Operation Ends

Provincial circles were speculating yesterday, without official statement, as to the future of company towns when word came that the evacuation of Anyox had ended.

Hon. G. S. Pearson said that Government employment agencies at Prince Rupert and elsewhere had been instructed to do what they could to find employment for the men released from Anyox, after closure of the copper mines of the Granby Consolidated concern. It is hoped to place many of the men in new work opening on the Coast at several points.

The labor bureau are seeking employment for numbers of the miners who had not already secured positions elsewhere in the province. So far, no large congestion of unemployed has resulted from the closing down of the big plant.

The labor bureau would become of the mine, Mr. Pearson said that was still the property of the company and would remain so as long as provincial taxation is paid. The Province has no immediate revolutionary rigors under the present mining law.

Absence of provincial machinery whereby abandoned mining properties could be taken over, other than through ex debito, is being given some consideration in provincial channels, though nothing of a concrete or definite nature has yet been arrived at, Mr. Pearson intimated.

RECEIVES PRAISE FOR SAVING LIFE

Victoria Welsh Society Tenders Thanks to Youthful Seaman of King Ebert

Public praise for his heroic work in saving an unidentified youth from drowning at Island View Beach last Sunday was tendered Fred A. Smith, apprentice able-seaman aboard the freighter King Ebert, by the Victoria Welsh Society, at a concert held for members of the freighter's crew last night in the S.O.E. Hall.

Racked by seas, speaking on behalf of the association, warmly commended the young man on his gallant effort. It was mentioned that Mr. Smith holds many medals for life-saving in London, England. A letter of appreciation from the society will be forwarded to Mr. Smith.

Those appearing in the concert, arranged by Stanley James, included: Mrs. Cadawan Williams, Reginald Stoffer, Arthur Groves, Iwan Jones, of the King Ebert; Percy Derbyshire, R. Tenor; Robert, of Portland; Barbara Groves, Maurice Thomas, Bert Little, Boyd McNeill, and Stanley James. Mrs. Rhonda Mason was accompanist.

Refreshments were served later by Mrs. Stanley James, Mrs. R. Evans and Mrs. J. L. Jones.

MAY REVISE B.C. RELIEF

Ontario's Action Is Forcing Reconsideration of Same Issue Here

Ontario's forthright statement that that province could not stand the existing burden of relief costs, and would have to curtail these immediately by a work-test and lowered schedule—was received with considerable interest in British Columbia circles this week. The whole arrangement of relief within this province was reported under consideration by the Government.

While no direct statement has been made, governmental revision of the present method of relief is reported as definitely contemplated. Segregation of relief lists into individuals who are employable, and those who through age or other physical condition are not, is now being considered as a logical step in any future provision for relief.

FARMERS HELPED

At present the Province is said to be carrying on its relief lists many farmers who live on their own land, and some of whom have been paid relief on undertaking to work their properties. Also on the list are men unfit for heavy work of any nature, some through reason of age, and others through disabilities. Approximately only 40 per cent of the relief lists are composed of those who are fully employable, it is understood.

Before a work-test could be offered to those who are employable, some segregation of the lists would have to take place. One suggestion being advanced was that non-employable persons on relief be handled through the welfare department of the service, as was done in the days before the relief system was initiated. Costs of indigent care in those days were about $250,000 yearly. Now the costs have risen sharply.

LESS BY 30,424

At the peak of registration, in March, 1933, British Columbia had 126,858 individuals, including dependents, on relief. In June, 1935, the corresponding number was 96,434, or 30,424 fewer than at the peak. The low point in relief lists was in August, 1934, when 78,067 persons were registered.

While numbers on relief have fluctuated, costs have gone steadily up, according to a recent Government statement, in which it was advertised that relief was costing Provincial taxpayers $750,000 more in this year than in last.

What action the Government will take has not yet been indicated.

BAND TO PLAY ON SHOW BOAT

16th Canadian Scottish Unit Will Provide Programme This Evening

The 16th Canadian Scottish Band will present a concert on the Show Boat tonight. An engaging programme has been prepared by Bandmaster James M. Miller.

The band will be assisted on this occasion by Miss Dolly Rutledge, who will sing popular numbers, accompanied by the band.

Following the opening fanfare will be an appropriate march, "The Killies," followed by a selection from the "tuneful operetta, 'High Jinks.'"

Next will be a descriptive number, "The Hunting Scene," which precedes a catchy, sparkling intermezzo, "Le Secret."

TWO PICCOLO SOLOS

Bandmaster James will offer two piccolo solos, "The Deep Blue Sea," and for his second number, "The Warblers' Serenade." A delightful waltz, "Moonlight on the Hudson," precedes the popular novelty march, "The Jolly Copperheads."

"Stridello" overture has been chosen because of its light, catchy tunelessness, fitting admirably the remainder of the programme. Other numbers to be heard are: An Oriental scene, "In a Persian Market"; a humoresque, "Comin' Through the Rye," and the minuet and barcarole from "Tales of Hoffman." The concluding number is a lively march, "Gate City."

Logging Accident Has Fatal Result

DUNCAN, Aug. 2.—Oscar Manfred Nelson, fifty-nine, died here yesterday from injuries he suffered a week ago while at work at a logging camp near Cowichan Lake.

Nelson came to Canada thirty-seven years ago. He had been at work at the camp only five days when he received the injuries that resulted in his death.

"Best Citizen" To Leave Today For Convention

Victoria will bid farewell today for a time to its "best citizen" when Captain Burges J. Gadsden leaves on a trip to the Prairies.

This afternoon Capt. Gadsden will board the Vancouver-bound ship in company with other delegates to attend the Provincial Command convention of the Canadian Legion, which will open tomorrow at Kamloops.

From Kamloops he will go to Sarcee Camp to participate in the Canadian Legion training camp there. At the end of camp, he will proceed to his farm lands in Southern Manitoba to superintend the harvesting and handling of the season's crops.

Captain Gadsden stated yesterday that local members of the Canadian Legion were planning to bring to Victoria the 1935 convention of the Washington State veterans. This is believed to be one of the largest proposed convocations in the Northwest next year.

NEW PARTY HEAD TO VISIT ISLAND

Hon. H. H. Stevens Coming Here By Way of Nanaimo for Meeting Tonight

VANCOUVER, Aug. 2.—His first political meeting scheduled for Victoria at the City Temple at 8 o'clock, tomorrow night, Hon. H. H. Stevens, Reconstruction leader, today met a large number of party workers for informal discussion. He will leave for Vancouver Island tomorrow morning, going first to Nanaimo, and then motoring to Victoria for a night meeting. There will be no meeting at Nanaimo, but organization matters will probably be discussed.

Further exposition of the new party's platform and policies would be made at his Vancouver meeting on Monday night, Mr. Stevens said today. He plans to leave on Tuesday for Kamloops, where he will speak. From there he will go on to spend the remainder of the week in his own constituency of East Kootenay, before leaving for Alberta. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Stevens.

Funeral Today for Late Alfred Gurney

Funeral services for the late Alfred Gurney, organist of the First United Church for the past fifteen years, will be held this afternoon, the cortege proceeding from the S. J. Curry & Son Funeral Home to the First United Church, where Rev. E. W. Horton and Rev. Bruce Gray will officiate at 2:30 o'clock. The remains will be laid at rest in the Royal Oak Burial Park.

Members of the First United Church choir are requested to occupy the choir seats at the church. Any singers belonging to other church choirs and who would like to assist in the singing are asked to assemble in the schoolroom not later than 2:20 p.m. in order that the choir may be suitably arranged.

Youth Is Challenged To Identify Itself With New Principles

Prof. King Gordon Speaks on the Forward Movement, in Which Security, Justice and Co-operation Are Principles

YOUTH must arouse itself, must realize its responsibilities by shaking off its cynicism or indifference and laconicism and identify itself with the world of tomorrow in which the three principles of security, justice and co-operation are the basic foundations, urged Prof. King Gordon, of Winnipeg and Montreal, in speaking at the Metropolitan Institute here last night on "Youth and the Forward Movement."

Youth today had the choice between the world of yesterday and the world of tomorrow. Economic society some years ago went into a tailspin from which it had not recovered, and now press dispatches from Geneva indicated the fact that there was at the present moment being enacted a drama of terrific importance to youth—so important that it might mean whether civilization as it was understood at the present time was to continue.

Youth stood, frightened, embarrassed, puzzled, a spectator to the fact that the economic and socialized world to which he had expected to be welcomed had closed its doors in his face. But more than this, youth was again wondering whether it was going to be called upon to offer itself as a futile and pathetic sacrifice.

IMPOTENT YOUTH
"Youth is impotent in the midst of the rapidly changing events of today, but at the same time beginning to realize what is happening in its world, and beginning to read the signs of the times, to sense that its destiny is something more than to take over the shattered world that has been wrecked by the stupidity, greed, selfishness, or selfishness of an older generation. Youth is beginning to sense the fact of a new world with a new ethic," said the speaker.

The nineteenth century was witness to a mechanistic conception of the universe, a universe run on rigid and inexorable laws of behavior and thinking as well as in the world of machinery. But today the world would no longer be nicely taped and measured. As Einstein had shown, this was a great incalculable universe, a world of the spirit, before which man once more stood in awe. The early psychology had given way to one in which man was recognized as a human being above all else, with a right to live.

THREE SYMBOLS
Three great events had come to symbolize the bankruptcy of the society of the past twenty years—the war, the hysterical and vulgar boom of 1920, and the depression. Contemporary literature in each of these periods had reflected the attitude of youth towards each. Professor Gordon quoted Rupert Brooke to show what the dreams of youth in the early days of the war were, and their eager belief that it symbolized some heroic quality in man. The generation that lived through the war unfortunately found no glory in war. Rather did they see it as a supreme blasphemy.

After the war came the hysterical period of the boom, with the rise of a generation which had fattened on the profits of war. Sinclair Lewis, Theodore Dreiser, Dorothy Parker and "other great debauchers" had set themselves the task of showing just how nasty and foul life was; had pictured the disillusionment of a whole generation.

Youth must build the world of tomorrow into which it was moving. The old order was bankrupt. If youth today worked in terms of economic security, then it could begin to think in terms of the far more important thing of what they were going to do with this new-found economic security. In other words, they must think of a world in which co-operation existed between man and man, nation and nation, creed and creed, for the welfare and spiritual exaltation of all humanity, Professor Gordon continued.

DISTRIBUTION OF WEALTH PARTY AIM
Liberal party would offer no armful of promises and advised his hearers to consider the promises made by other parties in the light of the Bennett Government's failure to fulfill its 1930 promises.

The fourteen points of the Liberal platform were:
A representative national commission to administer unemployment relief and provide work and a national system of unemployment insurance.

POLICY ON TRADE
Reciprocal trade agreements with other countries, removal of extravagant increases in tariff, abolition of all unwarranted extra imports on imports such as exchange and dumping duties and a substantial British preference.

Promotion of internal trade by ending artificial price control and agreements in restraint of trade.
Development of primary industries by reducing costs of production and obtaining wider markets.
National control of credit through a national central bank.
Protection of investors by an investment control board.

STAND ON RAILWAY
Maintenance of the Canadian National Railways as a publicly-owned and publicly-controlled service.
Democratization of industry through granting workers and consumers a larger share in control.
Restoration of responsible government by doing away with "blank cheque legislation."

Free speech, free association and repeal of Section 98 of the Criminal Code.
Electoral reform.
A balanced budget through reducing public expenditures, reducing interest rates, reducing taxes and increasing revenue by encouraging trade.
Peace and good will in international affairs.

DISTRIBUTION OF WEALTH
A more equitable distribution of wealth with greater regard for human needs, for social justice and the promotion of the common good.
Mr. King saw tendencies of fascism in the way in which Prime Minister R. B. Bennett made promises and announced policies without consulting the members of his party or even his Cabinet. Hon. H. H. Stevens had followed the same course when he announced he would form a party and announce its name and platform later.

Ordinarily in democratic countries the people formed the party and the party chose a leader, but Mr. Stevens had reversed the procedure. He had filled in the interval between announcements by going through every political programme he could find with "blessors and pastepots."

Fire Strikes in California Town

Under a blistering sun, fire swept down the main business street of Lancaster, historic desert town eighty-three miles north of Los Angeles, recently, and fed by buildings made dry as tinder by the desert sun, razed six of the town's largest structures before it was brought under control. The entire community was threatened with destruction when the flames were at their height.

States New Groups Are Not Competent To Govern Country

Dr. Patterson, President of B.C. Conservative Association, Addresses Nominating Convention—Claims New Parties Seek Bargaining Power

"THERE never was a time in the history of Canada when there was a greater need for an intensive study of the country's problems; that the people should be accorded to them in an unbiased manner," declared Dr. Frank Patterson, president of the British Columbia Conservative Association, speaking at the Conservative nominating convention in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium here last night.

Dr. Patterson's address was mainly a criticism of the lines of party government, to which he gave unqualified support, and an explanation of the futility of the so-called non-party form of government so freely advocated in many parts of the world.

UNTRIED PARTIES
Dr. Patterson admitted that there was a tendency to break away from the old line parties and for people to follow demagogues who exploited the discontent of the people. "It would be foolish," he said, "to turn the affairs of any country over to untried groups whose policies have failed wherever they have been tried." He was speaking particularly of new party movements in Canada.

Under the present Constitution, there was a greater need for the building up of a strong Constitutional party backed by tradition. Organized party support, he declared, was required to get ideas put into law. Under the present Canadian system, adopted from the British, minorities could not rule, he said. For the last 700 years the British system of government has been proven as the most efficient.

It was freer from abuse, provided stability and gave effect to strong policies, Dr. Patterson pointed out.

PRINCIPLE UNSOUND
Dr. Patterson spoke briefly on the tendency to the formation of new parties in Canada and characterized them as parties born of discontent and fear. But he reminded his audience, the conditions that exist in Canada apply to almost every civilized country of the world. It was the intense struggle for existence that produced radical thought, and he declared, it had been the experience of the past that these groups had failed of their purpose because they were built upon unsound principles and were guided by untrained leaders.

"I am not at all surprised at the formation of these new groups in our country. There are many surprises in political life. And I might say here that our friends who are opposing us in this election will probably have the biggest surprise. They seem, at the moment, too sure of success," Dr. Patterson stated.

PAST EXPERIENCES
Continuing his discussion of the movements, Dr. Patterson referred to the National Party of Quebec and the Progress Party of Ontario, and said, "It has been the same old monotonous story and, if it had not been followed by the disappointment and the discouragement of the people who became identified with those movements, it was most amusing. They went up like a bullet and came down like a stone."

Dr. Patterson said it had been admitted by one of the leaders of a new group in Canadian politics that there was no possible hope for the control of Parliament. "That is one of the outstanding features of these new movements. They do not expect to form a government. What they want to get is the balancing power, or the balance of power in Parliament without assuming the responsibility of government."

In other words, they want simply a bargaining power," Dr. Patterson declared. Dr. Patterson asserted that votes for third party were votes for party pressure and nothing else.

HAS NO POLICY
In his references to the recent address of the leader of the Liberal Party, Dr. Patterson said he was at a loss to find anything concerning the policy of the Liberal Party.

"After listening to the leader's address over the radio last Wednesday night, all of you must wonder just what policy, if any, the Liberal Party has. The Liberals claim to be the party of the middle road. That is not so. The Conservative Party is the reform party and recent legis-of adjusting domestic prices to world prices, which is the essence of the theory now crystallizing here.

Sir Arthur Salter, a member of the British Government's economic committee, has published two articles in the last two numbers of The Economist envisaging establishment of parity among the United States, France and Great Britain, with the franc at $4.86 and the franc at a level to be fixed by the French.

The parties would include a certain moderate range of fluctuation.

TWO PROCEDURES
Maintenance of parity under this theory would be assured by the two following procedures, carried out together or independently:

1. Each country would agree in case of raids on its money to support it by purchase of currency and its immediate conversion into gold until the opposition has been met.
2. The Bank for International Settlements would create and manage a central equalization fund whose resources would be provided by the participants in the scheme and which would help maintain the established parities.

If all these moves failed to keep the money at par, the country affected would have the right to readjust the value of its currency.

"The pulpit has said a great deal about sin, but comparatively little about fear,"

—Harry Emerson Fosdick.

A car breakdown miles from anywhere is a popular and frequent inspiration for smoke room and drawing-room jokes, but three young men saw little joke in their predicament when their car's big end broke in the middle of the road, and they were driving through the dreaded Ituri forest in Central Africa.

The men were members of the London Film unit which was obtaining authentic film shots of native dances, scenes and customs for the Korda picture, "Sanders of the River," which opens today at the Capitol Theatre.

They were on their way from Kitum, in Northern Uganda, to Stanleyville, and were crossing the Sudan from the border town of Aba. Stanleyville was three days' hard driving away.

They were on a "track" miles from anywhere, and as the night came on, and the noises of the forest seemed more ominous they decided that there was a lot to be said for London, after all.

Just after sundown the party was rescued—rescued if the word, by the British and the Progress Party of Quebec and the Progress Party of Ontario, and said, "It has been the same old monotonous story and, if it had not been followed by the disappointment and the discouragement of the people who became identified with those movements, it was most amusing. They went up like a bullet and came down like a stone."

Dr. Patterson said it had been admitted by one of the leaders of a new group in Canadian politics that there was no possible hope for the control of Parliament. "That is one of the outstanding features of these new movements. They do not expect to form a government. What they want to get is the balancing power, or the balance of power in Parliament without assuming the responsibility of government."

In other words, they want simply a bargaining power," Dr. Patterson declared. Dr. Patterson asserted that votes for third party were votes for party pressure and nothing else.

HAS NO POLICY
In his references to the recent address of the leader of the Liberal Party, Dr. Patterson said he was at a loss to find anything concerning the policy of the Liberal Party.

"After listening to the leader's address over the radio last Wednesday night, all of you must wonder just what policy, if any, the Liberal Party has. The Liberals claim to be the party of the middle road. That is not so. The Conservative Party is the reform party and recent legis-

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL

John M. Caird and George Bernard Are Sent to Higher Court by Magistrate

John M. Caird and George Bernard were committed for trial by Magistrate Jay, when they appeared in city police court yesterday on a charge of possessing a safe and jewelry, valued at $6,000, that had been stolen from the home of D. O. Cameron, 382 George Road.

The safe was stolen the night of July 13, and the accused were arrested by Detectives Fearon Woodburn and J. H. Rogers the next evening.

LONG VIGIL
Detective Woodburn gave the principal evidence for the prosecution. He said he had received certain information while investigating the robbery that led him to the safe, cached in bushes on Tolmie Avenue, near over the safe immediately, his vigil was rewarded within twenty minutes when, he testified, he saw three men drive up in a small truck. Two of them, dressed similarly to the accused, got out and walked towards the safe. They were later joined by the third. After looking around for a while, they drove away.

After four hours of watching, at 6 p.m., the detective said he was joined by Detective Rogers and Constables Samuel McKenzie and A. Briggs.

YOUTHS ARRESTED
At 9:45 p.m., Detective Woodburn saw two men walking towards the safe. They picked it up in a sack and started to walk away. Then, the witness explained, he drew his gun and held the men up as they were walking along Oak Street. Caird immediately protested they had found the safe and were taking it to the police station, the detective related.

The men were placed under arrest and taken to the police station.

DR. WILL DURANT TO SPEAK HERE FRIDAY
One of the most widely-read of present-day philosophers will be heard in Victoria next week, when Dr. Will Durant delivers a lecture at the Empire Theatre on Friday, August 9.

The name of "Will Durant" is a household word in intellectual circles everywhere, but it is chiefly through his "Story of Philosophy" that he is known to the general reading public. An attempt to "humanize" philosophy, this work condenses into intelligible form the contributions of leading philosophers to the fund of human knowledge. The book was an instant success and went through many editions, and is still one of today's best sellers.

The subject of Dr. Durant's lecture will be "Is Progress Real?"

MUSGRAVE HURLS GREAT 3-1 WIN

VANCOUVER, Aug. 2.—The Chammen defeated the Athletics, 3-1, in a senior City Baseball League fixture here tonight, in which Tommy Musgrave, formerly of Victoria, hurled two-hit ball for the winners, and Darlo-Lodigiani, a second baseman, hit a homer over the right field fence, was tagged out before he circled the bases and finally had the blow called a home run.

Lodigiani's circuit drive in the seventh inning, the only run the Athletics collected, cleared the inside right field fence but dropped between it and the outer fence and bounced back into the field through a hole in the inner fence.

Right fielder Billy Adhead scooped it up and caught Lodigiani at third as he loomed toward home. However, the umpire called it a home run under the ground rules.

New York Day by Day
—By O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, August 2.—To sit atop gallant and away with the champagne lumbago of a party of life on the sidewalk and streets below, is about as much fun as the metropolis offers. Every block a microcosm as shifting as the kaleidoscope.

Across from my perch this sidewalk was a graceful smokesmith in the style seen in the pages of Harper's Bazaar. In front a hatted Casper Milquetoast with an umbrella and a dent in his derby. And across the aisle a brikpin with a never-worn pair of gloves in his hand.

Reminded of Hill Nye's simile: "His gloves stuck up out of the pocket of his coat like the fingers of a drowning man calling for four more beers." We halted a moment in front of a feminine type restaurant with window tables and there came this reflection:

I never saw a skinnier girl eating one of those gooey double luxurios chocolates. And I never saw a fat woman who wasn't. A lurch and an elderly gentleman drops his glasses. They scatter run over, the glass powdered fine enough to put into an enemy's oatmeal.

Too, a girl silhouetted at Hick's fountain, churning her drink with a spoon and swinging the glass in circles to get the last mixed drop. Darting thoughts: Soda jockers have studied the recipes of millions of drinks with palate pleasing names, but no one has beaten the good old chocolate ice cream soda. E. Berry Wall has had his 3 p.m. daily chocolate soda at Rumpelmeyer's for twenty-two years.

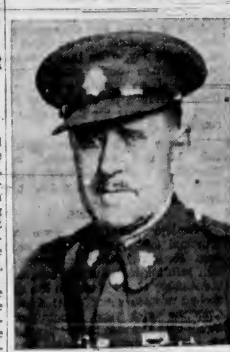

A sheen of Bowers light in the avenue's pomp. A bright-up "Dress Suit for Hire" parlor. A statistician should strike the average age of dress suits men wear at class reunions and the vintage of Irvin Cobb's. The one with frocked! Meijun and Jack Whiting gum up full evening attire for most of us. Maybe, too, it's the end of the Dress Suit Era. Slacks for a slack period!

A Claire Luce type swings faintly out of Dunhill's with one of those Redingtons on a leash. The dog that looks and acts like a shy lamb. That such a noble animal as the dog should be subjected to changing styles. Where is the Spitz, Pug, Newfoundland and the Caniche? They vanish like the buffalo and Indian. I hear there's not a French poodle in all Paris. Not even in the Parc Monceau.

GILBEY'S LONDON DRY GIN
THE GIN YOU CAN RELY ON
Noticed a chambermaid with white cap and apron peeking down from a hotel window near Madison Square. Tired, faded grey. It's a job many ladies of other days seek. Too, to be hired. People only glance at a chambermaid.
Oddly the old Platon, first skyscraper, is better tenanted than a half dozen modern and higher spires. Frank Munsey's offices were there, with the throne. Herbert Corey's Jimmy Allison's. The avenue tapers from 23rd to the arch into a more mellow glow, a benison that goes to the heart of the matter. One thinks of Mark Twain, O. Henry and many more whose gifts make life more endurable.

WARRANT IS PRESENTED

R.S.-M. A. L. Marchant Retires Following Forty-Eight Years of Service

—Photograph by Robert Port.

Regimental Sergeant-Major A. L. Marchant, of the 5th B.C. Coast Brigade, is now retired after forty-eight years of service in the permanent and non-permanent forces, and one of the happiest memories he will have will be the recollection of a recent evening at which he was guest of honor at a social of the Sergeants' Composite Mess at the Bay Street Armories.

Col. H. C. Greer presented to R.S.-M. Marchant a warrant, with which he coupled a review of the sergeant-major's career in the army. Col. Greer related that R.S.-M. Marchant had served in India with the London Rifle Brigade years ago. He had also seen service in the London Buffs, the Canadian Expeditionary Force and the Canadian Militia. As a mark of appreciation for his comrades of the mess, a photograph of all members of the Composite Mess was presented to R.S.-M. Marchant by R.S.-M. Leonard Griffiths.

SUPPLIED ENTERTAINMENT
The following artists took part in the programme: Miss Kathleen Doble, Miss Viola Short, Miss Alice Greenwell, Sergeant J. G. M. Griffiths, Sam Harrison, Miss Grice Staff-Sergeant Chalmers, Ray Hunt, Sergeant Percy Derbyshire, Bert Lilley, Miss Bernice Clair, Stanley Jones and Jerry Schofield.

Dancing was enjoyed following the programme. Invited guests included Col. and Mrs. Greer, Major and Mrs. Allan, Major and Mrs. Clives, Captain and Mrs. G. A. Macdonald, and Mrs. Housley, Lieut. Scott, Lieut. Gray, members of the 5th R.C.N. Barracks, and members of the 5th Regiment Sergeant's Mess and the Canadian Scottish Sergeant's Mess and their wives.

PIONEER LOCAL RESIDENT DIES

Frederick Appleton Succumbs at Family Residence—Private Funeral on Monday

Death came last night to Frederick Appleton, aged eighty-four, at the family residence, 216 Lee Avenue, following a protracted illness. Mr. Appleton was born in "Willow House," Smidley, Lancashire, England, in October, 1850, and came to Victoria about fifty years ago.

For many years he was engaged in construction work with the C.P.R. at Spence's Bridge, and was later manager of the Rutherford Mills at Endbury and Vernon. He came to Victoria and entered business as a real estate operator. Mr. Appleton retired in 1910 and resided quietly at Gordon Head for some time, more recently returning to the city to make his home.

He is survived by his widow and one son, Frederick Gordon, at the family residence, and one daughter, Mrs. E. Bruce Irving, 1547 Poul Bay Road.

The remains are resting at Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel, where private funeral services will be conducted on Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock. It is requested no flowers be sent. Interment will be made in Ross Bay Cemetery.

MRS. T. O. GRIFFIN REMOVED BY DEATH FOLLOWING ILLNESS

Mrs. Jane Miriam Griffin, aged fifty-eight years, resident of Victoria for the past fifty-two years, and of Elk Lake since 1908, passed away Thursday at the Sunhill Sanatorium, Montrose Avenue. She had been ill for over a year.

Mrs. Griffin was born in London, Ontario. Her husband, Capt. T. O. Griffin, was a former high official in the B.C. Coast Service of the C.P.R. Mrs. Griffin led a very quiet life.

She is survived by her husband, one son, Ormond R. Griffin, Victoria; two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Napier, Kestling, and Mrs. Kathleen Miller, Royal Oak; and five grandchildren.

City and District

New Motorcycle—Tender of the Brooklands Motorcycle Works of $450 for a new garage department motorcycle was accepted by the City Council yesterday.

Suspend Classes—The Y.M.C.A. Businessmen's Volleyball Club classes will be suspended during August; it was disclosed yesterday. Normal activities continue at the Y.M.C.A. officials reported.

Grant to V.O.N.—The City Council yesterday voted the sum of $625 to be paid area, over the north end, on account of the annual grant of $2,500 made to the organization by the City Council.

Visit Aged Men—W. H. Davies, accompanied by P. Fitzsimmons, recently visited the Home for Aged and Infirm Men, making the monthly donation of $2 to all non-pensioners.

No Parking Area—For the convenience of passengers using buses, a no parking area is to be established on the west side of Blanshard Street for a distance of thirty-five feet north from Yates Street.

Bush Fire—City firemen for an hour yesterday afternoon fought a bush fire at the west end of the Point Ellice Bridge. They also attended a small grass fire at the corner of Victoria and Central Avenues.

Willows Insurance—The City Council yesterday approved payment of $162.90, the city's share of the premium for $120,000 worth of insurance carried on Willows Park Colwood Park Association, Limited, paid the total premium of $300.

Aerial Photographs—Permission was granted the Forestry Department by the City Council yesterday to take aerial photographs of Sooke watershed area, near the north end of Sooke Lake. Other facts will also be gathered from the ground.

Acting Treasurer—J. A. Harrison, assistant treasurer at the City Hall, will take the place of D. A. Macdonald, comptroller and treasurer, while the latter is on his annual vacation, the City Council decided yesterday.

Bridge Dolphins—G. M. Irwin, city engineer, was instructed by the City Council yesterday to apply to the Dominion Department of Marine and Public Works for permission to construct protective dolphins at the Johnson Street Bridge.

Cruiser Coming—A battle-cruiser from the United States Pacific fleet, with a complement of forty officers and 600 men, will be here during Navy Week. Mayor David Leeming received this information from Ad. Lieut. and Mrs. Housley, Lieut. Scott, Lieut. Gray, members of the 5th R.C.N. Barracks, and members of the 5th Regiment Sergeant's Mess and the Canadian Scottish Sergeant's Mess and their wives.

Obituary

TYSOE—Very Rev. C. S. Quinlan, co-adjutor of central services yesterday afternoon for Samuel Tysoe, of 1035 Oliphant Street, who passed away in this city last Tuesday. One hymn, "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go," and one solo, "All the Way My Saviour Leads Me," were sung.

The following acted as pallbearers: Jack, Robert, Donald and William Tysoe. Interment was made in the family plot at Ross Bay Cemetery.

BARBER—The funeral of the late James Barber, who passed away at the family residence, 217 Quebec Street, took place yesterday afternoon at the chapel of the Sands Mortuary, Limited, Rev. J. S. Patterson conducted the service, during which Mrs. S. M. Morton rendered the solo, "Abide With Me." Many relatives and friends of the late Mr. Barber were present, and the casket was covered with many beautiful floral tributes.

George Robertson, John Robertson and Robert Robertson, all nephews of the deceased, and D. Byers acted as pallbearers. The remains were laid at rest in the family plot at Ross Bay Cemetery.

MALCOLM—Many sorrowing friends attended the funeral of Mrs. Catherine Malcolm, held yesterday afternoon at 3 p.m. at the funeral home of George Malcolm, 512 Catharine Street. The casket and hearse were covered with beautiful floral tributes.

The following were the pallbearers: F. R. Moore, C. J. Warren, E. B. McIntyre, George Malcolm, J. R. Bethwell and H. Williams. The remains were laid at rest in Colwood Burial Park.

SOMETIMES THEY FLY

WINNIPEG Aug. 2.—How high can a grasshopper hop? That's the question air mail pilots are asking these days. John R. Bain, who flew from the South today, said he ran into a cloud of "hoppers" at 9,500 feet over Billings, Mont.

City Employees—Having several cases in mind, Alderman Walter Lunney moved the City Council meeting yesterday that city employees be not allowed to engage in work for profit on their time off.

New Stop Signs—Stop signs are to be erected on Simcoe Street east of West of Menzies Street, and on Toronto Street east of Menzies Street. The police at the northwest corner of Menzies and Simcoe Streets is to be moved back seven feet, upon recommendation of Chief of Police Thomas Heasley.

More about Milk—Another group of Fraser Valley milk producers was in the city yesterday, interviewing Hon. K. C. MacDonald, with a protest against the announced intention of setting up single agency control in the Mainland milked. The Province has not wavered in its view, however, the minister indicated.

Claim Damages—Claims of Ainger R. Berry, 1508 Gladstone Avenue, and Mrs. Julia Chivers, 512 Catharine Street, for injuries alleged to have been sustained through condition of the sidewalk on Belmont Avenue and Belleville Street, respectively, have been referred to the city engineer and city solicitor for report to the council.

Wine Test Case—When it was found that his store was classified for the first six months of 1935 was a confectionery rather than a grocery store, the case against Bryn Brown, arraigned yesterday in city police court before Magistrate George Jay in a test case on the Wednesday Half-Holiday Act, was dismissed. Mr. Brown operates the Ogden Point Market. Frank Higgins, K.C., conducted the defence.

New Insurance Scheme—Luney Brothers, Ltd., and Parfitt Brothers, Ltd., yesterday were provided with the survey of the City Hall and will appraise their value. When the survey is completed, the City Council will discuss advisability of grouping all holdings under one blanket insurance scheme. At present there are approximately 150 policies issued on various buildings.

Reunion Tonight—Veterans of the B.C. Horse and 103rd Battalion will meet for a reunion smoker at the Pro Patria Branch of the Canadian Legion tonight. Considerable interest is being taken in the event, and indications are there will be a good attendance of former Timber Wolves. It is expected that Major K. B. Spurgeon will preside. An excellent programme has been arranged. The affair will commence at 8 o'clock.

Summer School Picnic—At 10 o'clock this morning buses will leave the public library with students from the Teacher's Summer School who wish to attend the annual picnic at Elk Lake. It will be an all-day outing, with luncheon and supper at the picnic grounds, and a well-organized programme of sports and aquatic contests. There will also be a best-decorated-table contest and a school-yell competition.

Consider Education—Recommendations by Major H. B. King, medical adviser to the British Columbia Government on the educational finance survey, went briefly before the Cabinet yesterday. It is unofficially understood. The subject was not discussed for some time, when further consideration will be given the report. It was learned. The report itself may be released shortly to the public, after printing.

Sunshine Camp—Protest of the Native Sons of British Columbia against relief reductions made while the children are at the Fred Landsberg Sunshine Camp at Saanichton will be answered by the City Council. Mayor David Leeming pointed out yesterday that no change in the form of relief would be made. The city is paying $40,000 above Government requirements to those on relief.

EXPECT NO DIFFICULTY
Apparently only Ethiopia's consent to the new compromise plan, which succeeded where two previous ones had failed, was needed. It appeared that no great difficulty would be expected there.

The surprise session was called after members, despairing of an agreement today, had given up and gone to the home of J. A. C. Avelo, League of Nations Secretary-General, for cocktails.

Agreement had been foreseen earlier in the day when the British asserted the situation was distinctly improved. A spokesman then said:

"We hope to have good news late tonight. The situation was distinctly improved. A spokesman then said:

Telephones to Rome were kept busy throughout the day as Benito Mussolini, his shadow falling over the behind-the-scenes negotiators, despite the miles separating him from Geneva, was kept informed of developments.

TO UNIFY DEFENCES
JERUSALEM, Aug. 2 (Jewish Telegraphic Agency).—The native press asserted today that the British Government has ordered the high commissioners of Palestine, Egypt and other near-Eastern territories to London for a military conference to consider unification of defences in event of an Italian-Ethiopian conflict.

DUCE'S OBJECTIONS
His objections to earlier peace proposals had been three: 1. He did not want specifically to picket the miles separating him from Geneva during negotiations.

2. He did not want to sit down around council tables in "co-operation" with Ethiopia, preferring to deal with Addis Ababa through regular channels.

3. He did not want any definite time limit set for bringing the dispute back to Geneva.

An official communique issued after the council session said: "The president of the council (Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet Foreign Commissioner), called a meeting of his colleagues at 3 p.m. to inform them of the conversations in progress."

"Laval, in his own name and in that of Eden, gave the council details as to his conclusions, that might shortly be laid before it."

AS AN EQUAL
Ethiopia's refusal of an earlier draft plan, it was learned, was based on her contention that she should be allowed to enter the forthcoming peace parley as an equal.

She was said to consider that the treaty of 1908 dishonored her, since it does not bear her signature. League circles reported that Teclé Hawariat, the Ethiopian delegate, said: "We would rather be murdered than commit suicide."

Late this evening the Ethiopian delegation went to Laval's hotel to discuss with him and Eden. They told the press they had received no reply from Addis Ababa concerning the new formula.

A council member said that the communication received from Mussolini this evening was deemed on the whole satisfactory.

PLAN MASS FLIGHT
ROME, Aug. 2.—Plans for the greatest mass flight in history with at least fifty bombing planes flying to Africa, were disclosed tonight by aeronautical circles.

The flight of the bombing fleet to Africa would exceed both in distance and number the planes the longest hop made by Balbo's squadron in its mass flight of twenty-five planes to the United States in 1933. The longest hop on that flight was 1,500 miles, from Iceland to Labrador.

The planes, it was understood, would take off from Southern Italy early in September and fly without armaments, thereby averting any question of a political issue with the United States, over which the armaments might pass. The planes were described as being of the latest tri-motored design.

ARMAMENT SHIPPED
Armament for the planes, it was said, has been shipped to East Africa.

Although informed quarters said Italy was determined to follow her definite policy in the Ethiopian affair without interference from Geneva, other sources expressed optimism that some definite avenue will fly slightly west of the 40th meridian.

OFFICIALS SEE START
The take-off of the polar ship was witnessed by high Soviet officials, the Tass agency reported, including Commissars of Home Affairs Yavoda, and Assistant Commissar of Heavy Industry Pyatakov. Commissar of War and Navy Voroshilov also witnessed the take-off, as did other invited foreign dignitaries.

The last land sighted by the flyers before they headed out over the frozen wastes of the North will be Victoria Island near Franz Josef Land. From there the Soviet air-men will fly over 1,616 miles of sea and ice to Prince Patrick Island off the Canadian coast.

The aviators will fly slightly west of the 120th meridian, their route taking them over Banks Land, Great Bear Lake, Fort Simpson, the Rockies and the Cascade Range. From Vancouver they will follow regular airlines to San Francisco.

REACH AGREEMENT ON WAY TO SETTLE

probably will be held tomorrow night, Britain's Secretary for League of Nations Affairs said, the postponement having been decided upon in order to give the Ethiopian delegation time to transmit the text of the draft resolution to Addis Ababa and receive Ethiopia's reply.

Earlier it had been disclosed that the three nations were in virtual agreement on methods of procedure, although details of the plan were not disclosed for some time.

A surprise private meeting of the League Council heard Premier Laval of France say, Eden and Baron Pompeo Aloisi of Italy had agreed to resumption of arbitration efforts, and the Italian-Ethiopian dispute to be tossed back into the League's lap if they failed.

ROME, Aug. 2.—Plans for the greatest mass flight in history with at least fifty bombing planes flying to Africa, were disclosed tonight by aeronautical circles.

The flight of the bombing fleet to Africa would exceed both in distance and number the planes the longest hop made by Balbo's squadron in its mass flight of twenty-five planes to the United States in 1933. The longest hop on that flight was 1,500 miles, from Iceland to Labrador.

The planes, it was understood, would take off from Southern Italy early in September and fly without armaments, thereby averting any question of a political issue with the United States, over which the armaments might pass. The planes were described as being of the latest tri-motored design.

ARMAMENT SHIPPED
Armament for the planes, it was said, has been shipped to East Africa.

D. B. PLUNKETT IS GIVEN NOMINATION

repeated in him by the party, Mr. Plunkett concluded.

E. W. Maynard occupied the chair during the nominations. R. A. Wootton proposed the name of Mr. Plunkett, and M. A. Hunt that of Mr. Allan, the president of the Victoria Conservative Association.

SPONSORS SPEAK
The Victoria member, since his election two terms ago, had secured the return of Clover Point to the city of Victoria; had triumphed in bringing about Federal decision to build a Dominion office building here; as well as hydrographic survey, depot, and a drill hall and office wing at Esquimalt. Mr. Wootton submitted. In addition, he said, Mr. Plunkett had been indefatigable in attending to the wants of the constituency in any issue calling for Federal attention, and had proved a successful defender of the seat since election.

Mr. Plunkett referred to Mr. Allan's long association with Conservative affairs in the city, and to his leadership of the Victoria Conservative Association in the last few years. Mr. Allan had proved an able and efficient leader, and had secured the confidence both of his colleagues in the party, and also of the business and professional life of the city, he stated.

CHEERS GIVEN
There were no further nominations. Balloting by 280 accredited delegates was ably supervised by F. A. Willis, returning officer, the chairman of the eight-city wards acting as scrutineers. The result of the ballot, a majority of 114 for Mr. Plunkett, was greeted with cheers, and the singing of "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Mr. Allan moved at once to have the decision made unanimous. This was done to the accompaniment of fresh cheering.

Dr. Frank Patterson, who spoke during the counting of the ballots, expressed every confidence in a Conservative victory. He discussed leading issues of the election, in remarks reported elsewhere.

Senator R. F. Green, Senator G. H. Barnard, Dr. Frank Patterson, R. A. Wootton, D. B. Plunkett, M.P., Hugh Allan, E. W. Maynard, F. A. Willis, Mrs. F. Roberts, and Mrs. K. Palmer occupied seats on the dais.

CANDIDATES SPEAK
Each candidate had spoken for five minutes before the balloting. Mr. Plunkett said he sought the nomination for a third time without apology, and wished to be judged

Al Moreau Sets World's Record For High Hurdles

OSLO, Norway, Aug. 2 (AP).—Al Moreau, brilliant United States steeple chaser from Markville, La., today equalled Percy Beard's world record of 142 seconds for the 110-meter high hurdles. Moreau continued his winning streak in a meet between the touring American track team and a picked Norwegian athletic array.

Flannel Dance Is Much Enjoyed at Golf Club

Delightful Affair Held at Oak Bay—Many Members and Their Friends Among the Guests—Decorations Are Attractive

The delightful custom instituted last year by the Victoria Golf Club of holding a Summer flannel dance has made a great appeal to the members and their friends, a large crowd joining in the dance held last evening at the clubhouse at Oak Bay.

It was a particularly enjoyable affair and the setting was charming. The ladies' committee, headed by the captain, Mrs. A. K. Mitchell, had arranged with artistic effect masses of Summer flowers in the ladies' lounge and in the entrance hall, while the fireplaces were banked with greenery and flowers. Rose pink dahlias, delphiniums and Shasta daisies harmonized perfectly with the colors in the chintz of the room.

An excellent orchestra played throughout the evening and supper was served towards midnight. The committee responsible for the great success of the dance comprised Mrs. Arthur K. Mitchell, Mrs. L. O.

Howard, Miss Benson, Mrs. C. W. Pangman, Mrs. Hew Paterson, Miss Marcia Prior, Mrs. J. H. Wilson, Messrs. J. H. Wilson, J. D. D. Campbell, H. J. Davis, A. H. Ford, W. H. H. Haldane, R. Peachey, G. M. Terry, E. D. Todd, A. M. Watson, W. B. Wilson and Capt. J. V. Perks.

THE DANCERS

Among those present were Commander and Mrs. Laurie, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Pangman, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Henderson, Dr. and Mrs. Allan Fraser, Mrs. C. B. McAllister, Col. Miss M. Lawson, of the Y.W.C.A. staff, will be on August 9, for her holidays in Banff.

Weddings

CREED—RAWLINGS

The wedding took place quietly at St. Stephen's Church, Brentwood, on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, of Olive Beatrice, youngest daughter of Mr. H. H. Rawlings, and Mrs. Claude Hull Creed, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Creed, of Brentwood, Rev. Montague Bruce officiating.

Mr. Rawlings gave his daughter away, and she wore a pretty frock of blue silk lace over tulle and a white hat and accessories, and carried a bouquet of roses, sweet peas and mallowdaisy fern.

A family dinner party was held later at the home of the bride's parents, when those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. Creed, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. H. Rawlings, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Creed, Mr. P. C. Rawlings, grandfather of the bride; Mr. Cecil Rawlings, Mrs. G. Catton, Miss Vera Catton and Mr. and Mrs. F. French. After a few days' cruising among the islands the bride and groom will make their home in Victoria.

PARKER—ECLLES

A pretty wedding took place on Thursday evening at 2421 Chambers Street, the home of the bride's parents, when Elsie Elizabeth, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Eccles, was united in marriage to Mr. S. Thomas Parker, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Parker, pioneer residents of Rocky Point, Rev. Bruce Gray, of West Point Grey United Church, Vancouver, cousin of the groom, performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a becoming floor length frock of white lace, trimmed with silk net. Her headpiece was of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of pink roses, white sweet peas and carnations and mallowdaisy fern. Her only attendant was Miss Elsie Greenidge, attractive in a frock of pastel green lace. Her bouquet was of mauve and pink sweet peas, carnations and yuccaphila. Mr. D. Murdoch, of the bride's family, followed the ceremony, refreshments were served from a table centred with a three-tier wedding cake, made by the bride's mother, set in folds of pink tulle. Isabelle Webber had decorated the cake. Pink and white sweet peas, pink and white streamers and tall pink tapers in silver holders added to the attractive appearance of the bride's table. Mr. D. Murdoch proposed the toast to the bride, the groom replying:

"The young couple left on the S. Princess Norah for the West Coast trip. For traveling, the bride wore a green fleeced tweed sweater suit with a white satin blouse and brown accessories. On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Parker will spend a few weeks in Victoria and then proceed to their home in Prince George, where the groom, an M.A. graduate of the University of British Columbia, is on the high school staff. Many beautiful gifts were received by the bride and groom.

Legion Party

At Metchosin Well Attended

The raspberry festival and garden party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson, Metchosin, on Wednesday, under the auspices of the W.A. to the Prince Edward branch Canadian Legion, was most successful, despite the showery weather. The affair was declared open at 3 p.m., by Mrs. C. H. Dickie, of Duncan.

The various stalls and contests were well patronized. The handsome doll donated by Mrs. C. H. O'Halloran was won by Mrs. Deane Freeman; the fruit-cake, donated by Mrs. Johnson, was won by Mrs. Ashe, and Mr. McCreight. Everyone had a feast of raspberries and cream, or tea. Aunt Sally was in great demand, and Madame Lavinia was kept busy with fortunes and peeps into the future.

Members of the auxiliary and the parent branch responsible were: General convener, Mrs. D. Deane Freeman; miscellaneous stall, Mrs. Rodgers and Mrs. Moore, tea, Mrs. Mackie, Mrs. Pike-Saunders, Mrs. Partington and Miss Barbara Johnson; "house-houses," Mrs. A. H. Hines, home-cooking, Mrs. MacDonald and Mrs. Stoneham; raspberry and cream, Mrs. Jonas and Mrs. Johnson; cake contest, Mrs. Bolton; Madame Lavinia, Mrs. Aldorf; Aunt Sally, Comrade Ashford; Comrade McCreight; soft drinks, Comrade Jonas; traffic with silk net, Mrs. Johnson; and produce, Mrs. McCreight.

The president of the W.A., Mrs. A. G. Mackie, delivered the good wishes of Lady (Percy) Lake, for the success of the fête.

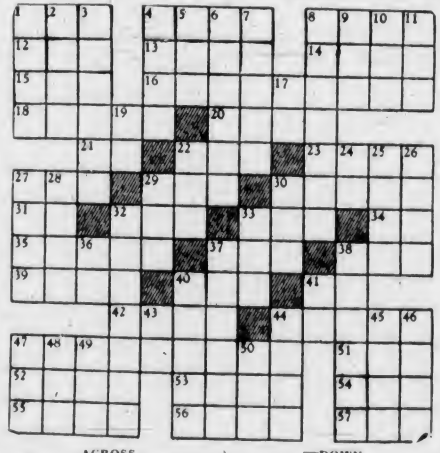

Workroom Receives Donations

The Women's Workroom during July received many useful donations from the following kind friends to whom they make grateful acknowledgment:

Mrs. Chisholm, Mrs. Findlay, Mrs. Willis, Mrs. Coventry, Mrs. E. King, Mrs. Godon, Mrs. Collis, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Curry Wood, the Friendly Help Welfare Association, and others, for clothing, accessories. On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Parker will spend a few weeks in Victoria and then proceed to their home in Prince George, where the groom, an M.A. graduate of the University of British Columbia, is on the high school staff. Many beautiful gifts were received by the bride and groom.

Weeks arrived in Victoria aboard the Ss. Ruth Alexander, and after a brief stay here, returned home.

Farwell Tea

Mrs. Norman Cook entertained at tea yesterday afternoon at her home on Roslyn Road, Oak Bay, in honor of Mrs. Clifford Harford, who will leave early next week to live in Vancouver.

Leaves for Vancouver

Miss June Scurrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Scurrell, left yesterday for Vancouver, where she will spend a week with Miss Ward, Gifford Apartments.

Entertain at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Dines entertained at dinner at "Mount Joy" last evening, the party later attending the dance at the Victoria Golf Club.

Visiting Sisters

Mrs. J. C. Proctor, of Tacoma, accompanied by her two daughters, is visiting her sisters, Mrs. J. Forrester and the Misses Warburton, Camosun Street.

Y.W.C.A. Camp Closed

The new Y.W.C.A. camp site at Glintz Lake was closed yesterday when the girls under canvas there terminated their outing.

In Nursing Home

Mrs. William Dick is recuperating from a recent illness at the Beachcroft Nursing Home.

What Today Means

"LEO"

If August 3 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m., from 2:45 to 4:45 p.m. and from 7:45 to 9:45 p.m. The day is divided into three periods: from 8:45 to 10:45 a.m. from 10:45 to 2:45 p.m. and from 4:45 to 6:45 p.m.

The wise will avoid indulging in too much flippancy this day as it will arouse resentment. Time will prove to be an important factor in the day's events. A disregard of it is likely to cause complications, so watch the clock. It is advisable to be both a good listener and a careful observer, as you are likely to hear and see things that may be of future value. Be cautious, for the fallacious reasoning of a friend does not cause you perturbation. Remember that statements made at random are frequently without substance. This day should be for having for a greater popularity in a social way. Try to mingle freely with friends. Married and engaged couples, and those engaged in courtship, are likely to find this an auspicious day on which to submit ideas, as they are apt to be received in a friendly spirit.

If a woman and August 3 is your birthday, you are willing to make many sacrifices to gain a desired end. Ambition spurs you on no matter what obstacles must be surmounted. Your courage will enable you to come out triumphantly, and the acclaim you probably will receive will more than compensate for the trials you have had. Painting, interior decorating, architecture, scientific research work, teaching and highly specialized clerical employment are among the activities most likely to offer the most satisfactory financial returns. Marriage may be instrumental in bringing much happiness to you, as well as help in advancing your social interests.

The child born on August 3, when it arrives at preparatory school age is likely to be inclined to keep to itself. This child is devoted to bashfulness and can be easily overcome with a little encouragement. If a man and August 3 is your natal day, you may have to endure much from those with whom you are closely associated, but if you have faith in yourself and a determination to win, nothing can probably stop you. Bear in mind that age can have no limitations if you have talent and ability. Law, engineering, art, medicine and selling offer you great possibilities.

Prize Howler—Summertime was invented by a man named Willett, who was afterwards known as the man of the hour.

THROUGH PLEDGED TO SUPPORT NEW DEAL

The motorist was supposed to be for roads. You, Mr. Motorist, paid—and every one of you—$53 last year for roads. When you see the value of the campaign without any intention of "playing politics." Unfair treatment of Vancouver Island was laid at the doors of Government, of both political views.

Mr. Partridge then explained the plan to circulate the petition, asking the Island members for a new deal and called for volunteers to help in the work to stay behind after the meeting.

Prior to the meeting the Canadian Legion Band provided a splendid musical programme.

AMERICANS, HERE FEW HOURS, IN COLLISION

A party of Americans from Los Angeles will have good cause to remember Victoria when they return home.

Yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, George H. Braun and his party from Los Angeles were in collision with an auto driven by C. L. Griffin, 2941 Blackwood Avenue, at the intersection of Quadra Street and Hillside Avenue, a police report said.

Both cars were badly damaged and the occupants were shaken up. The American car had been in Victoria only a few hours when the crash occurred, police said.

Report Kidnapped Journalist Free

PEIPING, Aug. 2 (CP-Havas).—Garth Jones, Manchester Guardian correspondent and former secretary to David Lloyd George, who was kidnapped by a band of Chinese bandits in Mongolia, was reported to have been released yesterday. The report said the British journalist had not been harmed.

DEPLORES ATTITUDE

He paid tribute to the stand taken by the British Government in the case of the kidnapping of the British journalist, but deplored the attitude of the Times "in sitting on the fence."

The trouble with the people of Vancouver Island was that they did not "go after" their members.

It was not sufficient for the ten members to "passify" in the Legislature. "They are there to represent all the people of Vancouver Island and should act en bloc to achieve the fair treatment to which this Island is entitled," he asserted, and applauded.

FELLOW SUFFERERS

Oscar Bass, K.C., former Deputy Attorney-General, spoke on the errors of the past. He addressed his audience as fellow sufferers.

He declared he was politically headed twenty years ago because he had had the tendency to point out the wrongs of his own party, and because he dared to demand fair treatment for Vancouver Island.

It was in 1899 that he first saw the policy revealed to strip Vancouver Island of her heritage. Ever since then the Legislature, bit by bit, had deprived the Island of that to which she was justly due.

The hardships from which the Island had suffered, he said, were from the hands of all political parties, Mr. Bass asserted.

The Workmen's Compensation Board, the administrative offices of the game warden's department, the motion picture board of censors, social welfare and forestry administrative offices are all located in Vancouver, whereas they should be where the seat of Government is located. In addition to these departments, Mr. Bass listed many other departments that had been eliminated from Vancouver Island.

Mr. Bass, dealing with a Times article which he claimed was signed to offer the New Deal campaign, declared it was, in his opinion, inspired by the Government to belittle the issue.

FOR YOUNG WOMEN

Miss G. Richens Smith, high school graduate, spoke on "Why a New Deal is Necessary to the Young Women of Vancouver Island." She pointed out that every year the high school turned out approximately 300 young men and women, and at least 60 per cent of them could not find work.

The future either holds out a new deal, a new consciousness and new responsibility, or absolute inability and lack of purpose. What is it to be? she asked, and then outlined how a new deal for Vancouver Island meant a new deal for young women, because it would give them a real job for young men and hence make it economically possible for young women to ultimately take their place in the community as home builders.

PLEA FOR YOUTH

E. L. Bishop made a plea on behalf of the young men. During the past year he had made a survey of the 275 students who matriculated from high school last year. Of that number, only twenty were able to find permanent or part-time employment.

TOURIST PARKING AREA IS NEEDED

Need of a reserved parking area for tourists directly in front of the Victoria Automobile Club, 640 Fort Street, was stressed by T. J. Goodlake, general secretary, at a meeting of the directors yesterday.

A letter requesting such an area be created was recently sent to the City Council, Mr. Goodlake explained. Although some time had passed since the application was made, nothing had been done by the council apart from acknowledging the letter.

Another matter will be drawn to the attention of the City Council by the club. Complaints had been received by directors that street signs in Victoria were written on one side of the arm and could be read by motorists coming from only one direction.

TO PUBLISH BOOKLET
For the benefit of its members, the club will shortly publish a booklet containing traffic by-laws pertaining to the city, various surrounding municipalities and neighboring unorganized territories.

Mr. Goodlake showed a draft of the booklet to the directors and received high praise for his work. Membership in the club is keeping up, reports showed.

The directors decided to continue their work for the placing of telephones on the Malahat.

Peter Runs for Safety

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

While Peter Rabbit was too we've ever had "Redwing" chuckled. He was full of chuckles. You see Blackbird why she was so plainly dressed when her husband wore such a handsome suit, there were other questions he could ask. "How do you do, Mrs. Redwing?" he exclaimed. "I'm ever so glad to see you. I was wondering where you were. Where did you come from?" "Straight from my home," replied Mrs. Redwing demurely. "And if I do say it, it is the best home was hidden in a certain clump of broken-down rushes with water all around. Suddenly Redwing flew up in the air with a harsh cry. "Run,

It was a lucky thing for Peter that that hole was too small for Reddy to follow him.

Peter! Run!" he screamed. "Here how soon it would be safe for him to come out. For a while he heard Mr. and Mrs. Redwing scolding sharply, and by this knew that Reddy Fox was still about. By and by they stopped scolding, and a few minutes later he heard Redwing's happy song of "Quong-k-a-ree, Quong-k-a-ree!" Peter was relieved. "That means," thought he, "that Reddy Fox has gone away, but I think I'll sit here a while longer to make sure. There's nothing like being safe. If one is safe nothing else matters much."

PROCESSING TAX JUDGED ILLEGAL

Chicago Judge Grants Injunction Restraining Collection of Levy From Packers

CHICAGO, Aug. 1 (AP).—Ruling the Federal Processing Tax is "not a tax at all," Federal Judge John Barnes today granted a temporary injunction to eighteen meat packing companies who sought to avoid paying about $7,000,000 in such taxes on pork.

The meat packers, including Armour & Co., Swift & Co., and

Wilson & Co., among the largest in the United States, won a court order restraining the internal revenue department from enforcing payment of the overdue taxes, mostly for May.

RIDES WHITE CHARGER IN MILITARY REVIEW

ADDIS ABABA, Aug. 1 (AP).—Colonel Hubert Julian, the "Black Eagle of Harlem," rode a white charger down the streets of Addis Ababa during today's military review. That gave rise to reports that the American Negro flyer, who has volunteered his services to Emperor Haile Selassie, would be put in command of Ethiopia's air force.

Receiving the press, Colonel Julian solemnly announced that Italy has 800 planes and Ethiopia ten.

New York Nine Reduces Detroit's Lead to Three Games and Widens Gap Over White Sox—Giants Continue Pace by Trimming Braves—Rookie Hands Chicago 8-0 Setback

AMERICAN LEAGUE
WASHINGTON, Aug. 2 (AP)—The New York Yankees snapped out of their hitting slump today, fell on three Washington pitchers for three hits and defeated the Senators, 4-1, to gain a half-game on the pace-setting Detroit Tigers. The victory reduced the Tigers' advantage to three games, and boosted the Yanks' margin over the third place White Sox to two games.

CRICKET WON BY VICTORIA

Local Colts Defeat Cowichan-Side as Play Continues in Tourney

DUNCAN, Aug. 2—Featured by some smart batting by J. Nation and clever bowling by Austin, who took nine wickets in the two innings for a total of 47 runs, Victoria Colts captured a closely-contested cricket match from Cowichan-Side as play continued here today, in the annual cricket week, tournament. Victoria scored 706 in its first innings against Cowichan-Side, and then garnered 60 in the second innings to the Up-Island team's 44. Scores follow:

Joe Cordia Reaches Public Links Final Despite Aching Feet

Blond Cop and Frankie Strafacci, High School Boy, Gain Last Bracket in Public Tournament—Former Removes Heavy Bandages

By PAUL MICKELSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 2 (AP)—Joe Cordia, a little blond "cop" from St. Paul, with blistered feet, and Frankie Strafacci, eighteen-year-old high school boy from the narrow streets of the Bay Ridge section of Brooklyn, will battle it out for the National Public Links golf championship tomorrow.

The two little shotmakers, neither weighing over 135 pounds, alternately hobbled and raced into the finals on this stuffy, hazy summer day with decisive victories that forecast a great duel for the title. Cordia, limping and stumbling with ailing "dogs" that seemed to bark a dirge for his opponent, defeated Russell, home town pride of Indianapolis, 4 and 2, while Frankie romped in to join him with an 11 and 9 conquest over Bob Tones, of Long Beach, Cal.

MIDDLESEX IN SECOND PLACE

Retains Runner-Up Position With Easy Win Over Somerset Eleven

LONDON, Aug. 2 (AP)—Middlesex and Derbyshire whittled little from Yorkshire's long lead in the county cricket championship today by fine victories, while the White Rose County went down ignominiously before Essex by an innings and 204 runs.

Middlesex won from Somerset by nine wickets to retain the runner-up position, while Derbyshire, as third, a fraction behind. The Middlesexers scored a fine win over Sussex by five wickets, and the losers as a result, dropped from fifth to sixth place. Nottinghamshire took the place vacated by Sussex after trouncing Leicestershire by an innings and 37 runs.

In other matches first innings victories were registered by Kent over Worcestershire and Lancashire over Hampshire.

Leicestershire, 176 and 190; Nottinghamshire, 403 for five wickets declared; at Nottingham. Somerset, 117 and 234; Middlesex, 255 and 97 for one wicket; at Taunton.

Sussex, 194 and 244; Derbyshire, 213 and 227 for five wickets. Lancashire, 472 for four declared. Hampshire, 175 and 317 for three wickets; at Corkhill, 154, not out; at Liverpool.

Kent, 436 and 204 for nine wickets declared; Worcestershire, 315 and 203 for two wickets; at Worcester.

SHUTE, GHEZZI LEADING FIELD

INVERNESS GOLF CLUB, TOLEDO, Ohio, Aug. 2 (AP)—Denny Shute, of Chicago, and Vic Ghezzi, of Deal, N.J., topped up this soaking wet layout today with a best ball of 62, nine under par, and dragged Sam Parks, United States National Open champion, and Ky Laffoon, out of the lead in the round-robin match play in which sixteen leading pros are participating.

Parks and Laffoon, who started the match with a "plus five" edge as a result of their first two matches, were eight down to the former British open champion and Ghezzi, and wound up the day with a "minus three" standing.

At the start of this afternoon's match Laffoon and Parks were plus five, leading the field while Shute and Ghezzi were in last place with minus six. Shute and Ghezzi hopped from last place to second place with their par-breaking surge, and sent the champion and Laffoon into the cellar.

FLIGHT...by W. D. TIPTON and J. H. MASONSOUND AND THE AIRPLANETHE WORLD'S FASTEST AIRPLANE TRAVELS
MORE THAN ONE HALF AS FAST AS SOUND
630 FEET PER SECOND.

There is a certain phenomenon about bodies moving through the air that designers and research engineers do not fully understand, particularly when their speed approximates that of sound, 1,080 feet per second.

When the tips of the propeller blades travel at about this speed their efficiency falls off decidedly. The designers therefore keep the propeller tip speed below 900 feet per second. Only recently it has been discovered that when a model airplane in a high speed wind tunnel reaches an air speed of about 600 miles per hour, something happens which suddenly increases its drag to a point where additional speed would be impossible, no matter how much power could be added to the full-sized airplane.

The fastest airplane in the world travels over half the speed of sound and when passing by, it seems to be way out ahead of its sound. The reason is that while the sound is traveling from the airplane to the spectator, the airplane is traveling forward, thus giving the illusion of the airplane running away from its roar.

WHY DO WE CALL IT AUGUST? When Caesar returned to Rome, after having reduced Egypt, occupied the Janiculum, put an end to the civil war, received the oath of allegiance from the army and entered upon his duties as first consul, something just had to be done about it.

What more fitting mark of respect by way of commemorating such outstanding achievements than to name after him the eighth month of the year. Heretofore this had been called Sextilis (the sixth month) because the Romans dated their year from March.

There was a good old Roman celebration, the change was pronounced male, and the word Sextilis was Augustus (our August) horse. —Hummel, Hamburg

Local Girl Is Featured With C.R.C. Network

Here to spend two weeks' vacation before returning to her home in Winnipeg, Miss Phyllis Roberts, former Victoria girl, and now a featured actress with the Canadian Radio Commission in Winnipeg, is staying with friends at Cordova Bay.

Miss Roberts' career reads brilliantly. She left Victoria two years ago for the prairie city and shortly after her arrival there joined the Winnipeg Little Theatre Association. Noted by many critics as a promising actress, Miss Roberts soon graduated to the radio.

During the past winter she played the role of Julia Youngblood in the popular Mid-Western C.P.R. feature "Youngbloods of Beaver Bend." This programme is broadcast through the commission channels East and West as far as the Pacific coast.

The feature, which is broadcast from C.R.C. Winnipeg, 30,000 watt station, is scheduled to return to the air next fall for another winter series.

Winnipeg, Miss Roberts belongs to many clubs, and is an expert swimmer, skater and golfer. While in Victoria, she was a member of the Victoria Olympic Society. Her many friends in this city will be glad to hear of her success.
